

Business Forum Luncheon

State of the Region address

What metro really does --- and did

Be part of the Metro discussion:

- Green spaces; preserving habitat, providing recreation
- Land use; reserves & urban growth
- Transportation; highways and transit

Metro's new initiatives for quality of life under President David Bragdon have created an environment of regional collaboration.

As Bragdon ends his eight year term as Metro's first region-wide elected president hear how he and Metro government have made a difference in all our communities.
