

North Clackamas Chamber of Commerce

Women in Leadership and Management Awards (WILMA)

Nomination Criteria

The Women in Leadership and Management Academy graduated its first class of leaders in June 2017. WILMA provides leaders with the opportunity to learn and practice interpersonal skills they will use every day. A credentialed program combining classroom experience, professional development, skills practice and the support of a workplace mentor.

In honor of the Chamber's commitment in investing in and developing women leaders, we are holding our second Women in Leadership and Management Awards to recognize and celebrate outstanding leadership and achievements.

The Women in Leadership and Management Awards being held on October 18, 2018 will recognize the high-level achievements of executives and leaders who encourage, inspire, and mentor others to assume leadership positions within Clackamas County.
