

North Clackamas Chamber of Commerce
Women in Leadership and Management Awards (WILMA)
Nomination Criteria

The Women in Leadership and Management Academy graduated its first class of leaders in June 2017. WILMA provides leaders with the opportunity to learn and practice interpersonal skills they will use every day. A credentialed program combining classroom experience and professional development.

In honor of the Chamber's commitment in investing in and developing women leaders, we are holding our Sixth Women in Leadership and Management Awards to recognize and celebrate outstanding leadership and achievements.

The Women in Leadership and Management Awards being held on January 25, 2024, will recognize the high-level achievements of executives and leaders who encourage, inspire, and mentor others to assume leadership positions within Clackamas County.

Women in Leadership and Management Awards (WILMA) nomination criteria:

- Nominee should exhibit leadership skills in their field of expertise.
- Have been a role model and/or mentor to others.
- Considerations include how the nominee gives back to the community, years in business, demonstrates advocacy for education training, workforce development and job growth.
- Award will be based on information provided in nomination form. Please complete thoroughly and thoughtfully.
- Nominee, or nominees' organization, does not have to be a Chamber member, but must live or work within Clackamas County.
- One person per category will be selected.
- One category per nominee submission.
- Any incomplete applications will be returned for re-submittal.
- Deadline for nominee's is October 31st, 2023

Women in Leadership and Management Award categories:

Non-Profit – large (more than 50 employees)

Non-Profit – small (fewer than 50 employees)

Business – large (more than 50 employees)

Business – small (fewer than 50 employees)

Entrepreneur

Public Service (including Education, Government entity and Emergency Services)

Manufacturing

Lifetime Achievement - honors a woman who has demonstrated outstanding leadership throughout her career in a business -or- community setting.

Please provide the Nominee contact information, as well as the contact information for the person making the nomination on the following pages. Incomplete applications will be returned.

Nominee: _____

Organization (if applicable): _____

Nominee's contact info:

Email: _____ Phone: _____

Category (one only from list below): _____

(Non-Profit – large (50+ employees), Non-Profit – small (fewer than 50 employees), Business – large (50+ employees), Business – small (fewer than 50 employees), Entrepreneur, Public Service (including Education, Government entity and Emergency Services), Manufacturing or Lifetime Achievement)

(Attach additional sheets if necessary)

1. Describe how Nominee exhibits leadership in field of expertise. Provide an example (300-500 words).

[illegible]

2. Describe how Nominee gives back to the community. Provide an example (300-500 words).

[illegible]

3. Describe how the nominee is a role model to others both in field of expertise and within community?
(300-500 words)

4. Describe how Nominee demonstrates advocacy for education/job growth. Provide an example.

5. Is there anything else you'd like us to know about the Nominee?

Person Submitting Nomination: _____ Organization (if applicable): _____

Contact info: Email: _____ Phone: _____

Deadline for nominee submission is October 31, 2023

Please call Chamber office to ensure your nomination has been received

Email to: Info@yourchamber.com

Mail to: North Clackamas Chamber
8305 SE Monterey Avenue, Suite 104
Happy Valley, OR 97086

Leadership Sponsors

